THE LIVELIEST ACTIVITY

Is Being Shown by the Burghers. General Joubert Cheered—Telegraphic Communication Between the Transvaal and Natal Interrupted—Excitement at Johannesburg.

London, Sept. 30.—Indications lead to the belief that in view of the cabinet message, the Boers will probably commit an overt act, which will bring on hostilities before the assembling of parliament. All the latest dispatches from the Transvaal show the liveliest activity on the part of the burghers. Telegrams from Pretoria announce that artillery is being rapidly loaded at the station for the front, and military trains have preference on all lines. The Cape mail is delayed in consequence of the large amount of rolling stock reserved for the forces.

A large body of burghers has left for the Natal border and another for Middelburg. Detachments of cyclists are being distributed among the different commandos. It is understood that the first contingent of the Pretoria force will leave for the eastern border today. Commandant General Joubert addressed a crowd of burghers at the Pretoria station. His remarks were loudly observed. The officers of the German corps left for the front yesterday, and the Hollanders corps paraded in the principal square of Pretoria and saluted President Kruger.

The correspondent of The Morning Post at Johannesburg sends the following: "A government official has just returned from Pretoria where he saw President Kruger, assures me that martial law will be proclaimed today or Monday next."

The press association says: "Parliament, which will be summoned by royal proclamation, is expected to reassemble in about three weeks. The government desires a clear expression of approval by the legislature of the policy now being pursued in South Africa as well as the necessary financial legislation."

The premier and most of the cabinet ministers returned home after the council. It was said that the batch of South African cablegrams received at the colonial office yesterday did not contain President Kruger's reply, as supposed, but referred to other matters. The cabinet, therefore, was unable to discuss the reply. Owing to the reticence of ministers, there are various stories current. It is asserted, with some show of authority, that the dispatches received necessitate further communication with Sir Alfred Milner and the reassembling of the cabinet next Tuesday before the new proposals of the British government can be definitely settled. Officers at Woodville believe that an army corps will be started for South Africa about Oct. 7, with General Sir Redvers Buller.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

Makes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Women Well.

For over thirty years this celebrated remedy has been making women's lives happier—healthier—safer. Many thousands of women have testified to its wonderful effect. It is the one medicine that can be depended upon when there is any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism. It purifies, heals, soothes, builds up. It is needed when backaches make life miserable—when a sickening, dragging, bearing-down feeling makes work a weary agony and play impossible—when disagreeable drains give proof of burning inflammation—when sick headache, nervous irritability, loss of energy and appetite are the result of unwholesome irregularity or painful periods.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 888 East College Street, Jackson, Miss. "I was so bad I could not get on my feet. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains every month, but now I never have a pain. I feel as well as I ever did. I am a strong and healthy woman. Thanks to your medicine. I never forget to recommend it to all suffering women. I consider myself a living testimonial of the benefits of your 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets help the effect of all other medicines by keeping the liver active and the bowels open. At all dealers—get what you ask for.

there appears to be unusual excitement in the admiralty departments. Mr. Goschen, first lord of admiralty, was busily engaged there for the greater part of the day. It is rumored that unexpected complications have arisen and that extensive preparations are to be made to guard against contingencies. Significance is attached to the fact that Mr. Balfour was in conference with Lord Rothschild at Downing street yesterday afternoon.

COMMUNICATION

By Telegraph Interrupted Between Transvaal and Natal.

Capetown, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Glencoe, Natal, says: Telegraphic communication between here and the Transvaal is temporarily interrupted. This is supposed to have been caused by a thunderstorm. The camp is free from sickness and patrols are regular, especially in the direction of De Jagers drift, on the Buffalo river, where the Boers are reported to be laagered. The greatest enthusiasm prevails.

The second movement of troops from Ladysmith to Dundee was carefully concealed and expeditiously carried out. The townspeople only knew of the maneuver by the presence of the troops. It is stated that the burghers have requested permission to either return to their farms or raid Natal.

A telegram from Volksrust says it is reported that the Boers intend to take up a position with Schinons Hogte, falling back on Laings Nek if forced to do so.

Victorian Volunteers.

Melbourne, Victoria, Sept. 30.—A conference of the military commandants of all the colonies except New Zealand is sitting here to discuss the equipment and dispatch of an Australian force to South Africa. Volunteers are coming forward largely from all the colonies. About 1,400 Victorians have already volunteered.

OPEN QUESTION

Whether Russia Will Not Recommend Arbitration in Transvaal.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—Discussing the attitude of Germany in regard to the Transvaal crisis, the Russia says: "It is still an open question as to whether Russian diplomacy, on the basis of The Hague conference, may not make the experiment of recommending that Great Britain and the Transvaal have recourse to a court of arbitration. In view of the hostile feeling against Great Britain it is very possible that numerous volunteers from Europe will go to the aid of the Boers, as Russian volunteers aided Serbia. If Great Britain attempts to prevent such a movement, Russia, perhaps, will speak a decisive word."

GREAT EXCITEMENT

Commanders Ordered to Take the Field—Dispatch Riders.

Johannesburg, Sept. 30.—There is great excitement in consequence of orders to the commanders to take the field. Part of the Johannesburg corps assembled yesterday. Dispatch riders have gone to the front.

Mobilized at Utrecht.

Dundee, Natal, Sept. 30.—It is asserted here that the Boers have mobilized at Utrecht and at the new railway bridge on the Transvaal side of Buffalo river. There are 1,000 men at each place. The Boers have cut a route through the high bank and are ready to cross to Natal.

Widespread Excitement.

Durban, Natal, Sept. 30.—The summing of the volunteers has caused widespread excitement. The men responded readily, and 800 troops, with numerous guns, were entrained today.

SAMOAN AFFAIRS

Steps Taken by the Provisional Government of the Island.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Late official advices from Samoa contain accounts of recent meetings of the provisional government at Apia at which steps were taken to have native judges try cases between natives and native officials to solemnize marriages and keep tax records of property owned by the Samoans. Two judges—Tagaosa and Toomata—were chosen, one being an adherent of the former king, Malietoa, and the other a Matafan.

The provisional authorities settled the claim of the heirs of the late King Malietoa Leupea, and rejected the claim of the secretary of the late Samoan government.

Captain Preedy of the British ship Torch was given several warrants against natives for capital crimes, which will be turned over to Chief Lauati for execution.

The proceedings indicate an entirely pacific condition of affairs on the island.

NINE WERE INJURED

Freight Train Crashes Into a Sleeper on the L. D. and W. Road.

Montezuma, Ind., Sept. 30.—While the eastbound passenger train was entering a siding here yesterday on the Indiana, Decatur and Western, a fast freight dashed into the combination sleeper and chair car, which was still on the main track. There were 18 passengers in the car—10 in berths and eight occupying chairs. The car was broken in two and the wildest excitement prevailed. The wreck took place and it seemed that the people penned in the cars would be cremated, but the train crew worked like beavers and soon had the flames extinguished. Fortunately there was no loss of life, but nine persons were injured, as follows: H. E. Osborn, Waukegan, Wis., badly hurt about the body and hands; J. L. Shierke, Chicago, painful injuries about the head and head; Adam F. May, Flat Rock, Ind., painfully bruised and shoulder dislocated; Miss Mollie Meredith, Indianapolis, cut about the face and head; O. E. Bradford, Cedarville, O., slightly injured about the body; Oliver Reveal, Indianapolis, wrist sprained and body bruised; C. A. Gosnell, Cambridge City, Ind., legs cut and hand wrenched; Albert A. Ahlers, Indianapolis, wrist badly cut; Dr. W. E. Hendricks, Martinsville, Ind., cut on the arms, hands and head.

Montezuma was the meeting point for the trains, and the engineer of the freight says the brakeman of the passenger train gave him the signal to come ahead, but this the brakeman denies.

$1,000,000 BLAZE

Big Four Warehouse at Cincinnati Destroyed by Fire.

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—Fire was discovered this morning in the Big Four warehouse on Pearl street. The fire rapidly spread to other railway buildings, including the freight sheds where 40 loaded freight cars were burned and 80 that were not loaded. Some passenger coaches were also badly damaged in the yards. The warehouse where the fire started was formerly used as a Union passenger station and is just across the street from the new passenger station, which was so badly damaged that no morning trains could leave that place. The approaches to the Chesapeake and Ohio railway bridges were also badly damaged. The loss is estimated at over $1,000,000.

Accident in a Distillery.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 30.—A spirit tub at the Majestic distillery collapsed yesterday and carried down several rectifiers. It happened that no one was at work near the place at the time, and the tub was filled with water instead of spirits. No one was hurt, but the damage to property will be considerable.

One New Case at Jackson.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 30.—Secretary Hunter of the state board of health issued a statement last night that one new case of yellow fever appeared in the city yesterday, the patient being Charles Elliot, a Western Union messenger boy.

Missionary Society Loses a Legacy.

Wabash, Ind., Sept. 30.—In the White circuit court the heirs of A. O. Probascio, a wealthy resident of the county who died several months ago, won the suit to break the will of their father. Prior to his death Probascio, the testator, bequeathed the bulk of his property, valued at $20,000, to the Baptist National Missionary society. The heirs commenced the action to annul the will, and the decision of the court, just handed down, is in their favor.

White's Institute.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 30.—The report made by White's institute, near Wabash, to the Indiana Yearly Meeting shows that on Feb. 27 the main buildings were destroyed by fire, but new buildings are in process of construction, and will cost $10,490.50. The receipts of the past year have been $17,775.72, and the expenditures were $16,993.77, leaving a balance of almost $2,000.

NEVER SURPASSED

Was the Reception Tendered Admiral Dewey at New York.

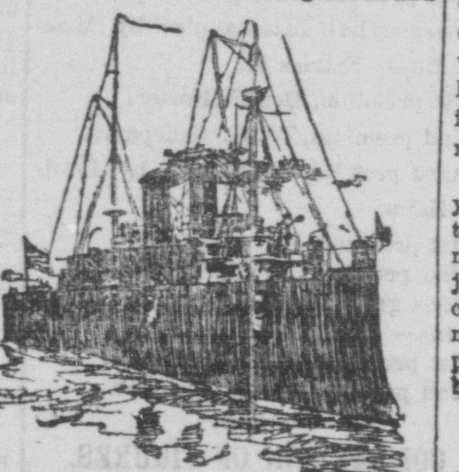

THREE MILLION PEOPLE

Wave Their Greetings to the Stately Warrior, as He Led the Procession to Grant's Tomb in His Magnificent Warship Olympia—Description of the Great Parade.

New York, Sept. 30.—No Roman conqueror returned to his triumph of barbaric splendor; no victorious king or prince coming home from a successful war over received such a magnificent ovation as overwhelmed Admiral Dewey yesterday as he stood on the bridge of the Olympia at the head of a magnificent fleet of steel thunderers of the deep, followed by 1,000 vessels of peace, each coated black with people and sailed over the bright waters on the upper bay and up the broad pathway of the sunlight river, whose banks were gay with millions of flags and streamers dancing to wind.

The sky was blue, the water rippled under the fresh wind that held out flags straight and jaunty, and the wharves and piers and rocky heights and grassy knolls were black with frantic, enthusiastic people, who strived weakly to make their shouts heard above the perfect bedlam of tooting whistles that accompanied the admiral ashore and aloft. As the tomb of General Grant on Riverside drive was reached, the fleet paid its tribute to the memory of the great warrior with a national salute of 21 roaring guns.

The fleet then anchored and reviewed the almost endless procession of craft that steamed past, although burdened with the humanity that they looked like they would turn turtle before they got back to their piers. Toward the end the parade became disorganized and it took hours for the heterogeneous flotilla to get by. Darkness at last brought relief to the tired admiral, who had stood on the bridge for six hours, bowing his acknowledgments to the stentorian expression of homage.

New York has never witnessed before anything approaching this wonderful, remarkable demonstration. The Columbian naval parade, the dedication of Grant's tomb and the reception of the North Atlantic squadron last fall, all pale before this gigantic ovation to the sailor, who, in a single morning, destroyed an enemy's fleet without the loss of a man or a ship.

It is not beyond the mark to say that 3,000,000 people viewed the pageant from ashore and that 250,000 were aloft.

When the ships had straightened out for their journey across the upper bay, the spectacle they made will ever be treasured in the memory of those who saw it. In advance of the Olympia was a double line of patrol and fireboats. On the port beam of the Olympia was the escorting ship Sandy Hook, with the mayor and other dignitaries aboard, and in her wake, at intervals of 400 yards, stretched out a mile long, were the great towering warships, the armored cruiser New York, the battleships Indiana and Massachusetts, cruiser Brooklyn, battleship Texas, the old wooden Lancaster, the gunboat Marietta and the Chicago, the flagship of the South Atlantic squadron. Old glory fluttered from each masthead and taffrail.

Admiral Dewey went up on the after bridge as soon as the start was made and remained there throughout the parade, a heroic figure outlined against the skies for the thousands aloft and ashore.

By his direction the ensign was contested to vessels which sailed. Several times he ordered the crew to stand by to cheer in answer to some extraordinary demonstration. The guns of the Olympia spoke but once until the tomb of Grant was reached. That was when they barked in answer to the deep baying of the guns of Fort William, on Governor's Island.

The untold thousands who thronged the wharves and piers, who leaned from windows and balconies, and looked down from the dizzy heights of skyscrapers, must have impressed the admiral greatly, but his modesty would not permit him to view it all as a personal ovation. "Astounding, astonishing," he repeated several times to Colonel Bartlett, but he said nothing of himself.

The waving of hundreds of thousands of flags and handkerchiefs along the shore could be distinctly seen from the deck of the Olympia, but only occasionally was the sound of cheers wafted from the crowds ashore; they were too much interested in the spectacle to venture applause.

When the fleets swept around the stakeboat above Grant's tomb, and each ship had let go its booming salute, the opponent that followed was soul-madden-

SATURDAY, SEPT. 30, 1899.

It begins to look like a stampede to Bookwalter for mayor of Indianapolis. Tom Taggart wishes now he had meant it when he said he would not be a candidate again.

Two of the Columbus papers say in concert that Seymour is not attending their race meet this week. Yet they know our street fair is going on with performances every forenoon, afternoon and evening. Then they should remember that their very first venture was that "Columbus should hail Seymour's street fair with the same dread that a burned child does fire."

Coughed 25 Years.

A Few Shots Exchanged.

This morning there was some trouble in the Senate saloon on Second street and as an immediate result two or three shots were exchanged but no one was hurt. The proprietor of the saloon was not present at the time. As to the nature of the difficulty or what yet may be done with the parties involved the REPUBLICAN has no definite information.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain the back, kidneys, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty cent and one dollar sizes.

Hello!

Did you say that you were not feeling well and that your stomach was out of order? Well then, try a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you are sure of relief. Constipation and indigestion cured. Sick headache cured. Greatest boon to mankind and is being appreciated by thousands. 10c will get you a trial bottle. Larger sizes 50c and $1.00. Of W. H. Bear.

THE LAST DAY.

SEYMOUR STREET FAIR CLOSES TONIGHT.

Though The Weather Has Been Unfavorable The Fair Has Been a Success.—Merchants Have Done a Good Business.—More of the Awards.

At ten o'clock tonight Seymour's third street fair will close. Though the weather has been somewhat unfavorable the fair has been a great success. The attendance one day with another has not been as large as last year yet no fault can be found with the size of the crowd. Large and interested crowds have been here from the first, and they have come from all directions. For this the people of Seymour are especially grateful. The merchants have had a large business during the week, in fact they have done a much larger volume of business this week than during the same week last year or year before. True, the soda fountains and ice cream parlors have not done so well as formerly, the weather having been too chilly for their line. The hotels and restaurants have had about all the business they could take care of.

The judges have been quite busy making the awards of premiums the past two days and will get through with their work today. These will be published in the REPUBLICAN from day to day until completed.

In this comparison it is estimated that six years will be required for the building association stock to mature. As a matter of fact all the stock thus far has matured in five years and eleven months. This gives the association still further advantage as one month's dues less would be paid. Besides the payments in the building association are made in small amounts every week and are much easier to meet than the large amount in one lump sum. Series R in the Co-operative building and loan association opens Monday October 2, when stock may be taken either for investment or loan. For full particulars see W. F. PETER, Sec'y.

A PART OF HIS STORY

ONE CHAPTER IN THE LIFE OF A YOUNG ADVENTURER.

A Dramatic Incident in a Career Which May Have Ended Behind Prison Bars or Which May Now Be Brimful of Happiness and Hope.

"These little detached passages in other people's stories that we are continually running into by pure chance," said an old reporter off duty, "are the most fascinating and tantalizing things in life. Sometimes we get a whole chapter, sometimes we get nothing more than a scrap of dialogue, and as often as not it's only a glance of the eye or a gesture of the hand, but we realize all the same that we have accidentally intruded upon some poignant human document of which we are never to know either the beginning or the end. I have often amused myself by taking such fragmentary morsels and attempting to reconstruct around them a logical sequence of events, just as naturalists build up fossil monstrosities from small sections of their big toes, and I may add that the inviolable result of my efforts has shattered my faith in comparative zoology. I am forced to believe that the naturalists are faking us. However, when—" "Oh, well," said somebody in the office, "go ahead and tell the story and have done with it!"

"The incident I had in mind," continued the old reporter, looking somewhat injured, "was narrated to me by a gentleman of this city who is now manager of an extensive orange grove, with offices in New Orleans. Eight or nine years ago, before he assumed his present position, he had charge of a large sugar plantation up the river, and one day during the grinding season a young Englishman came to his office and applied to him for work.

"The young fellow said his name was John Mason, and his shabby clothes and a hungry look in his eye confirmed the statement that he was badly in need of a job. The manager liked his face and manners and put him at light work with a gang at the cane carriers. Mason proved a very good hand. He was steady and sober, but he attracted no special attention, had no intimates and never let drop a word about his history. At the end of the season he drew his money and went away.

"About a month later the manager received a letter from a lady in England inquiring about her son, John Mason, whom she understood was working on that plantation. The letter went on to say that he had left home believing he had killed a young woman to whom he was engaged. He had struck her with something in a fit of insane jealousy. The woman was not dead, and the trouble had been fixed up. Meanwhile the young man had come in for a legacy of £5,000, and his mother wanted him to return at once.

"The letter was evidently written by a person of culture and refinement and seemed sincere, but, having no idea of Mason's whereabouts, all the manager could do was to reply to that effect. That closed the correspondence.

"One evening next grinding season a very ragged, trampish looking man came to the office window and asked for work. Dirt, privation and a heavy beard had changed him considerably, but the manager recognized him as Mason at a glance. 'Didn't you use to work for me?' he asked. 'No,' replied the man. 'I was never south before in my life.' 'Well,' said the manager, 'I have no work for you, but you reminded me at first of a fellow I want to see, a fellow named John Mason.'

"The applicant stood for a while irresolute. 'I used to have a partner by that name,' he said finally; 'may be it was him. What was it about?'

"The manager looked him in the eye. 'I wanted to tell him that that woman was not dead,' he replied. "Mason grabbed hold of the window sill and turned white as a sheet under his dirt. His jaw trembled for a minute, and then he began to blubber like a child. The manager came out, led him in kindly, and as soon as the Englishman saw the letter he admitted the story of his flight was true. The reaction was so great that he became half hysterical, but at last he was persuaded to go to his old quarters for the night, and the manager assured him that he would make arrangements next day for his immediate return to England."

"Well?" asked several listeners.

"That's all there is to the story," said the old reporter. "Next morning John Mason wasn't there. His bed had not been slept in; nobody had seen him; nobody has ever seen him since. Where he came from, what became of him, who he really was, nobody knows. The manager wrote to the mother and got no reply, and the question arises, Was it his mother after all? Might not the letter have been a decoy? How did the writer learn his address? Was the girl actually alive or dead? True, the manager might have settled some of these problems by further inquiries at the English end, but he is a wise man and has learned that it is not well to meddle with detached chapters. It is an excellent rule."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Cold and Chloroform.

It has been found that an apparatus for killing animals with chloroform in England would not work in India, because the high temperature prevented the concentration of the chloroform vapor. That this was the case was proved by the fact that by placing ice in the box the animals were readily killed.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

Its Value as a Preventive and Cure of Pulmonary Diseases.

Dr. E. Fletcher Ingals of Chicago, in a paper with this title, said that the absence of systematic study by physicians and the very meager literature compelled him to be somewhat dogmatic in his paper. One of the most common observations made by medical men, he said, was that the long, narrow, flat chested individual was the one liable to the development of tuberculosis and that in patients presenting this form of chest the chances for recovery were reduced to a minimum.

This observation he considered sufficient to suggest that systematic physical training in aiding the development of the respiratory muscles, thoracic walls and pulmonary capacity would be of great service in preventing tuberculosis and in curing its early stages. Collapsed air cells, he said, furnished a most favorable nidus for the development of tuberculosis. Therefore for the prevention of the disease measures should be adopted to expand the lungs and bring the air cells into the best possible working condition.

He thought it probable that in most cases there was an early tuberculous localized anemia, diminishing the nutrition of the parts and making them more susceptible to the tubercle bacilli and their toxins. Of the large percentage of the human family said to be affected by tuberculosis (80 per cent), the majority recovered, even when the disease affected the lungs, it not proving fatal in more than 12 per cent.

He stated that in most of those who recovered the disease had made but little progress, and that it was only at autopsy after death from other causes that its presence was detected, in view of which it was the physician's duty to recommend measures likely to strengthen the resisting power of the lungs. The beneficial influence of a high altitude he considered probably due to the increased

CLEVER ENTERTAINERS.

The Street Fair Amusements Were Well Chosen.

All those who have been employed to amuse and entertain the people during the street fair have done creditable work. It is doubtful if many cities have been so fortunate in securing performers for their street fairs as Seymour has. These entertainments have increased in popularity during the week and we predict that the crowd to see the concluding performances to-night will fill all the space within hearing distance of the stages and platforms.

At the big stage on West Second street a first class vaudeville entertainment has been given every afternoon and evening this week and they have had a big crowd every time. The performers who have worked so faithfully and well are: Mayfield & Lee, comedy sketch artists, Horton, the very clever clown juggler, Miss Artie Filmore, vocalist, Secker, Wilkes and Secker, comedy sketch artists, Miss Grace Leondo, the Spanish dancer, and the famous colored cake walkers. Fill up the reserved seats tonight and hear their concluding entertainment.

Leondo, who rolls the ball up and down the spiral tower, standing on the ball all the time does an act that is indeed marvelous. The play of fireworks about him at night is very beautiful.

Prof. Lee, the magician and illusionists, was here with his brother two years ago and established a good reputation with the Seymour people. Many of his tricks are new and novel and never fail to hold a crowd. He gives a different entertainment on each of the three stages that he appears on. Leona, the snake hypnotist, who handles the large poisonous snakes, is the wife of Prof. Lee.

Obert, the aerialist, and Irebo, the "king of the high wire," are two only in name. His performances are all right.

One of the best features of the week has been the band music. Four bands have been employed and they all deserve much credit for their faithful and efficient work. They will continue to play until the lights go out tonight giving to the street fair a lively finish.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY.

Are the Statement of Seymour Citizens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Seymour. It permits of only one answer. A Seymour citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Seymour. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

Boone, Iowa, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering almost agonizing pains called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Ohi! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.
MRS. GRACE LAMPERT.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past. The obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

WAR SEEMS CERTAIN

Believed in London That the Boers Will Bring on Hostilities.

THE LIVELIEST ACTIVITY

Is Being Shown by the Burghers. General Joubert Cheered - Telegraphic Communication Between the Transvaal and Natal Interrupted - Excitement at Johannesburg.

London, Sept. 30.—Indications lead to the belief that in view of the cabinet message, the Boers will probably commit an overt act, which will bring on hostilities before the assembling of parliament. All the latest dispatches from the Transvaal show the liveliest activity on the part of the burghers. Telegrams from Pretoria announce that artillery is being rapidly loaded at the station for the front, and military trains have preference on all lines. The Cape mail is delayed in consequence of the large amount of rolling stock reserved for the forces.

A large body of burghers has left for the Natal border and another for Middelburg. Detachments of cyclists are being distributed among the different commandos. It is understood that the first contingent of the Pretoria force will leave for the eastern border today. Commandant General Joubert addressed a crowd of burghers at the Pretoria station. His remarks were loudly cheered.

GENERAL JOUBERT.

The officers of the German corps left for the front yesterday, and the Hollanders corps paraded in the principal square of Pretoria and saluted President Kruger.

The correspondent of The Morning Post at Johannesburg sends the following: "A government official has just returned from Pretoria where he saw President Kruger, and assures me that martial law will be proclaimed today or Monday next."

The press association says: "Parliament, which will be summoned by royal proclamation, is expected to reassemble in about three weeks. The government desires a clear expression of approval by the legislature of the policy now being pursued in South Africa as well as the necessary financial legislation."

The premier and most of the cabinet ministers returned home after the council.

It was said that the batch of South African cabigrams received at the colonial office yesterday did not contain President Kruger's reply, as supposed, but referred to other matters. The cabinet, therefore, was unable to discuss the reply.

Owing to the reticence of ministers, there are various stories current. It is asserted, with some show of authority, that the dispatches received necessitate further communication with Sir Alfred Milner and the reassembling of the cabinet next Tuesday before the new proposals of the British government can be definitely settled.

Officers at Woodville believe that an army corps will be started for South Africa about Oct. 7, with General Sir Redvers Buller.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

Makes Weak Women Strong.

And Sick Women Well.

For over thirty years this celebrated remedy has been making women's lives happier—healthier—stronger. Many thousands of women have testified to its wonderful effect. It is the one medicine that can be depended upon when there is any derangement of the distinctly female organism. It purifies, heals, soothes, builds up. It enables when backaches make life miserable—when a sickening, dragging, bearing-down feeling makes work a weary greivous drain—give proof of burning inflammation—when sick headache, nervous irritability, loss of energy and appetite are the reminder of unwholesome irregularity of painful periods.

I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 225 East College Street, Jacksonville, Ill. "I was so bad I could lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains in the lower part of my bowels, and such distress every month, but now I am a healthy woman. I do all my own work and am a strong and never forget to recommend it to all suffering women. I consider myself a living testimonial to the benefits of your 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets help the effect of all other medicines by keeping the liver active and the bowels open. At all druggists—get what you ask for.

There appears to be unusual excitement in the admiralty departments. Mr. Goschen, first lord of admiralty, was busily engaged there for the greater part of the day. It is rumored that unexpected complications have arisen and that extensive preparations are to be made to guard against contingencies. Significance is attached to the fact that Mr. Balfour was in conference with Lord Rothschild at Downing street yesterday afternoon.

COMMUNICATION

By Telegraph Interrupted Between Transvaal and Natal. Capetown, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Glencoe, Natal, says: Telegraphic communication between here and the Transvaal is temporarily interrupted. This is supposed to have been caused by a thunderstorm. The camp is free from sickness and patrols are regular, especially in the direction of De Jagersdrift, on the Buffalo river, where the Boers are reported to be laagered. The greatest enthusiasm prevails.

The second movement of troops from Ladysmith to Dundee was carefully concealed and expeditiously carried out. The townspeople only knew of the maneuver by the presence of the troops. It is stated that the burghers have requested permission to either return to their farms or raid Natal.

A telegram from Volksrust says it is reported that the Boers intend to take up a position with Scholons Hoge, falling back on Laings Nek if forced to do so.

Victorian Volunteers.

Melbourne, Victoria, Sept. 30.—A conference of the military commandants of all the colonies except New Zealand is sitting here to discuss the equipment and dispatch of an Australian force to South Africa. Volunteers are coming forward largely from all the colonies. About 1,400 Victorians have already volunteered.

OPEN QUESTION

Whether Russia Will Not Recommend Arbitration in Transvaal. St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—Discussing the attitude of Germany in regard to the Transvaal crisis, the Russia says: "It is still an open question as to whether Russian diplomacy, on the basis of The Hague conference, may not make the experiment of recommending that Great Britain and the Transvaal have recourse to a court of arbitration."

In view of the hostile feeling against Great Britain it is very possible that numerous volunteers from Europe will go to the aid of the Boers, as Russian volunteers aided Serbia. If Great Britain attempts to prevent such a movement, Russia, perhaps, will speak a decisive word.

GREAT EXCITEMENT

Commanders Ordered to Take the Field—Dispatch Riders. Johannesburg, Sept. 30.—There is great excitement in consequence of orders to the commanders to take the field. Part of the Johannesburg corps assembled yesterday. Dispatch riders have gone to the front.

Mobilized at Utrecht.

Dundee, Natal, Sept. 30.—It is asserted here that the Boers have mobilized at Utrecht and at the new railway bridge on the Transvaal side of Buffalo river. There are 1,000 men at each place. The Boers have cut a route through the high bank and are ready to cross to Natal.

Widespread Excitement.

Durban, Natal, Sept. 30.—The summoning of the volunteers has caused widespread excitement. The men responded readily, and 800 troops, with numerous guns, were entrained today.

SAMOAN AFFAIRS

Steps Taken by the Provisional Government of the Island.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Late official advices from Samoa contain accounts of recent meetings of the provisional government at Apia at which steps were taken to have native judges try cases between natives and native officials to solemnize marriages and keep track of property owned by the Samoans. Two judges—Tagafoa and Toomata—were chosen, one being an adherent of the former king, Malietoa, and the other a Matafau.

The provisional authorities settled the claim of the heirs of the late King Malietoa Tanumafili, and rejected the claim of the secretary of the late Samoan government.

Captain Preedy of the British ship Torch was given several warrants against natives for capital crimes, which will be turned over to Chief Lanati for execution.

The proceedings indicate an entirely pacific condition of affairs on the island.

NINE WERE INJURED

Freight Train Crashes Into a Sleeper on the L. D. and W. Road.

Montezuma, Ind., Sept. 30.—While the eastbound passenger train was entering a siding here yesterday on the Indiana, Decatur and Western, a fast freight dished into the combination sleeper and chair car, which was still on the main track. There were 18 passengers in the car—10 in berths and eight occupying chairs. The car was broken in two and the wildest excitement prevailed. The wreck took fire and it seemed that the people penned in the cars would be cremated, but the train crew worked like beavers and soon had the flames extinguished. Fortunately there was no loss of life, but nine persons were injured, as follows:

H. E. Osborn, Waukegan, Wis., badly hurt about the body and hands.
J. L. Sharkey, Chicago, painful injuries about the head and body.
Adam F. May, Pittsboro, Ind., painfully bruised and shoulder dislocated.

Miss Mollie Meredith, Indianapolis, cut about the face and head.
O. E. Bradfute, Cedarville, O., slightly injured about the body.

Oliver Reveal, Indianapolis, wrist sprained and body bruised.
C. A. Gosnell, Cambridge City, Ind., legs cut and hips wrenched.

Albert A. Ahlers, Indianapolis, wrist badly cut.
Dr. W. E. Hendricks, Martinsville, Ind., cut on the arms, hands and head.

Montezuma was the meeting point for the trains, and the engineer of the freight train gave him the signal to come ahead, but this the brakeman denies.

$1,000,000 BLAZE

Big Four Warehouse at Cincinnati Destroyed by Fire.

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—Fire was discovered this morning in the Big Four warehouse on Pearl street. The fire rapidly spread to other railway buildings, including the freight sheds where 40 loaded freight cars were burned and 80 that were not loaded. Some passenger coaches were also badly damaged in the yards.

The warehouse where the fire started was formerly used as a Union passenger station and is just across the street from the new passenger station, which was so badly damaged that no morning trains could leave that place. The approaches to the Chesapeake and Ohio railway bridges were also badly damaged. The loss is estimated at over $1,000,000.

Accident in a Distillery.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 30.—A spirit tub at the Majestic distillery collapsed yesterday and carried down several resters. It happened that no one was at work near the place at the time, and the tub was filled with water instead of spirits. No one was hurt, but the damage to property will be considerable.

One New Case at Jackson.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 30.—Secretary Hunter of the state board of health issued a statement last night that one new case of yellow fever appeared in the city yesterday, the patient being Charles Elliot, a Western Union messenger boy.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY LOSES A LEGACY.
Wabash, Ind., Sept. 30.—In the Whitely circuit court the heirs of A. C. Probascio, a wealthy resident of the county who died several months ago, won the suit to break the will of their father. Prior to his death Probascio, the testator, bequeathed the bulk of his property, valued at $80,000, to the Baptist National Missionary society. The heirs commenced the action to annul the will, and the decision of the court, just handed down, is in their favor.

White's Institute.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 30.—The report made by White's institute, near Wabash, to the Indiana Yearly Meeting shows that on Feb. 27 the main buildings were destroyed by fire, but new buildings are in process of construction, and will cost $10,400.80. THREE MILLION PEOPLE

Wave Their Greetings to the Stately Warrior, as He Led the Procession to Grant's Tomb in His Magnificent Warship Olympia—Description of the Great Parade.

New York, Sept. 30.—No Roman conqueror returned to his triumph of barbaric splendor; no victorious king or prince coming home from a successful war ever received such a magnificent ovation as overwhelmed Admiral Dewey yesterday as he stood on the bridge of the Olympia at the head of a magnificent fleet of steel thunderers of the deep, followed by 1,000 vessels of peace, each coated black with people and sailed over the bright waters on the upper bay and up the broad pathway of the sunlight river, whose banks were gay with millions of flags and streamers dancing to wind.

The sky was blue, the water rippled under the fresh wind that held out flags straight and jaunty, and the wharves and piers and rocky heights and grassy knolls were black with frantic, enthusiastic people, who strived weakly to make their shouts heard above the perfect bedlam of tooting whistles that accompanied the admiral ashore and aloft. As the tomb of General Grant on Riverside drive was reached, the fleet paid its tribute to the memory of the great warrior with a national salute of 21 roaring guns.

The fleet then anchored and reviewed the almost endless procession of craft that steamed past, although burdened with the humanity that they looked like they would turn turtle before they got back to their piers. Toward the end the parade became disorganized and

THE OLYMPIA.

It took hours for the heterogeneous flotilla to get by. Darkness at last brought relief to the tired admiral, who had stood on the bridge for six hours, buying his acknowledgements to the stentorian expression of homage.

New York has never witnessed before anything approaching this wonderful, remarkable demonstration. The Columbian naval parade, the dedication of Grant's tomb and the reception of the North Atlantic squadron last fall, all pale before this gigantic ovation to the sailor, who, in a single morning, destroyed an enemy's fleet without the loss of a man or a ship.

It is not beyond the mark to say that 8,000,000 people viewed the pageant from ashore and that 250,000 were aloft.

When the ships had straightened out for their journey across the upper bay, the spectacle they made will ever be treasured in the memory of those who saw it. In advance of the Olympia was a double line of patrol and fireboats. On the port beam of the Olympia was the escorting ship Sandy Hook, with the mayor and other dignitaries aboard, and in her wake, at intervals of 400 yards, stretched out a mile long, were the great towering warships, the armored cruiser New York, the battleships Indiana and Massachusetts, cruiser Brooklyn, battleship Texas, the old wooden Lancaster, the gunboat Marietta and the Chicago, the flagship of the South Atlantic squadron. Old glory fluttered from each masthead and taffrail.

Admiral Dewey went up on the after rigging as soon as the start was made and remained there throughout the parade, a heroic figure outlined against the skies for the thousands aloft and ashore.

By his direction the ensign was contested to vessels which saluted. Several times he ordered the crew to stand by to cheer in answer to some extraordinary demonstration. The guns of the Olympia spoke but once until the tomb of Grant was reached. That was when they barked in answer to the deep baying of the guns of Fort William, on Governor's Island.

The untold thousands who thronged the wharves and piers, who leaned from windows and balconies, and looked down from the dizzy heights of skyscrapers, must have impressed the admiral greatly, but his modesty would not permit him to view it all as a personal ovation. "Astounding, astonishing," he repeated several times to Colonel Bartlett, but he said nothing of himself.

The waving of hundreds of thousands of flags and handkerchiefs along the shore could be distinctly seen from the deck of the Olympia, but only occasionally was the sound of cheers wafted from the crowds ashore; they were too much interested in the spectacle to venture applause.

When the fleets swept around the stakeboat above Grant's tomb, and each ship had let go its booming salute, the concert that followed was soul-stirring.

BUTTERWORTH'S LIFE

McKinley to Contribute a Paper, as Will Members of Congress.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Harry H. Smith, former journal clerk of the house of representatives, was among those who saw the president yesterday afternoon after the cabinet meeting. Mr. Smith, at the request of the family of the late Benjamin Butterworth, is compiling and editing the memorial volume of tributes to the life, character and public services of Mr. Butterworth, and has substantially completed his part of the work. President McKinley will contribute a letter or paper, as will many of the leading members of congress who were Mr. Butterworth's colleagues during his 10 years' service in the house of representatives. The volume will be printed for private distribution by the family, and will be published in December next.

SANTIAGO

Celebrated Dewey Day With a Miniature Naval Parade.

Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 30.—The Americans in Santiago de Cuba celebrated "Dewey Day" yesterday afternoon. The government buildings and residences of Americans were gayly decorated. There was a miniature naval parade of yachts and tugs, with a general blowing of whistles and a discharging of cannon crackers. Last evening an elaborate display of fireworks was carried out on lighters in the harbor. The arrival of numerous Americans since the raising of the quarantine made the celebration possible.

As the United States troops have not yet returned to the city it was necessary to engage Cuban bands to furnish the music. The Cubans did not, however, join in the celebration. They are inclined to resent Dewey's reported statement that the Filipinos are more capable of selfgovernment than the Cubans.

FALSE REPORT

Of Liverpool Cotton Quotations Causes Great Excitement at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 30.—False cablegrams from Liverpool yesterday quoting a raise of 1/4 cents in cotton, had almost caused a panic here on the Cotton Exchange. There was a wild rush to sell before it was ascertained the cablegrams were false. The exchange, on being advised of the false quotations by Liverpool correspondents, suspended the market until Monday and, on the opinion of its attorney, declared all deals off. Dispatches from other cotton markets in the states say that the excitement was high over false news from Liverpool.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—The differences between organized labor and the festival and federal committees were amicably adjusted last night and it was announced that the cornerstone of the new postoffice would be laid on Oct. 9 in accordance with the original programme. The compromise was reached after two days of conference between members of the federal committee and representatives of organized labor. Under the terms of agreement the cornerstone will be cut by union men from a block of Illinois limestone.

CLEVER ENTERTAINERS.

The Street Fair Amusements Were Well Chosen.

All those who have been employed to amuse and entertain the people during the street fair have done creditable work. It is doubtful if many cities have been so fortunate in securing performers for their street fairs as Seymour has. These entertainments have increased in popularity during the week and we predict that the crowd to see the concluding performances to-night will fill all the space within hearing distance of the stages and platforms.

At the big stage on West Second street a first class vaudeville entertainment has been given every afternoon and evening this week and they have had a big crowd every time. The performers who have worked so faithfully and well are: Mayfield & Lee, comedy sketch artists, Horton, the very clever clown juggler, Miss Artie Filmore, vocalist, Secker, Wilkes and Secker, comedy sketch artists, Miss Grace Leondo, the Spanish dancer, and the famous colored cake walkers. Fill up the reserved seats tonight and hear their concluding entertainment.

Leondo, who rolls the ball up and down the spiral tower, standing on the ball all the time does an act that is indeed marvelous. The play of fireworks about him at night is very beautiful.

Prof. Lee, the magician and illusionist, was here with his brother two years ago and established a good reputation with the Seymour people. Many of his tricks are new and novel and never fail to hold a crowd. He gives a different entertainment on each of the three stages that he appears on. Leona, the snake hypnotist, who handles the large poisonous snakes, is the wife of Prof. Lee.

Oberti, the aerialist, and Irebo, the "king of the high wire," are two only in name. His performances are all right.

One of the best features of the week has been the band music. Four bands have been employed and they all deserve much credit for their faithful and efficient work. They will continue to play until the lights go out tonight giving to the street fair a lively finish.

ANSWER IT HONESTLY.

Are the Statement of Seymour Cit-izens Not More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers?

This is a vital question. It is fraught with interest to Sey-mour.

It permits of only one answer. It cannot be evaded or ignored. A Seymour citizen speaks here. Speaks for the welfare of Seymour. A citizen's statement is reliable. An utter stranger's doubtful. Home proof is the best proof.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 30, 1899.

It begins to look like a stampede to Bookwalter for mayor of Indianapolis. Tom Taggart wishes now he had meant it when he said he would not be a candidate again.

Two of the Columbus papers say in concert that Seymour is not attending their race meet this week. Yet they know our street fair is going on with performances every forenoon, afternoon and evening. Then they should remember that their very first overture was that "Columbus should hail Seymour's street fair with the same dread that a burned child does fire."

Oughted 25 Years.

I suffered for 25 years with a cough and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. The remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Russell, Graysburg, Ill.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

J. Spurgeon, of the C. & M., is visiting friends about Freetown.

D. M. Indeman, of the S. I., was a business visitor here this forenoon.

The bridge carpenters of the S. I., came home this morning to spend Sunday with their families.

James Shaner has recovered from a serious sickness and came out on No. 7 today.

Conductor Charles Bishop, after leaving St. Louis this morning on No. 8, was taken very sick and compelled to abandon his train.

Frank J. Smith, master mechanic of the B. & O. S.-W. shops at Chillicothe, O., came in last night to visit his family. He is well pleased with his new position.

A Few Shots Exchanged.

This morning there was some trouble in the Senate saloon on Second street and as an immediate result two or three shots were exchanged but no one was hurt. The proprietor of the saloon was not present at the time. As to the nature of the difficulty or what yet may be done with the parties involved the REPUBLICAN has no definite information.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain the back, kidneys, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention that you read this generous offer to the SEYMOUR REPUBLICAN.

Hello!

Did you say that you were not feeling well and that your stomach was out of order? Well then, try a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and you are sure of relief. Constipation and indigestion cured. Sick headache cured. Greatest boon to mankind and is being appreciated by thousands. It will get you a trial bottle. Larger sizes 50c and $1.00. Of W. H. Bear.

THE LAST DAY.

SEYMOUR STREET FAIR CLOSES TONIGHT.

Though The Weather Has Been Unfavorable The Fair Has Been a Success... Merchants Have Done a Good Business... More of the Awards.

At ten o'clock tonight Seymour's third street fair will close. Though the weather has been somewhat unfavorable the fair has been a great success. The attendance one day with another has not been as large as last year yet no fault can be found with the size of the crowd. Large and interested crowds have been here from the first, and they have come from all directions. For this the people of Seymour are especially grateful. The merchants have had a large business during the week, in fact they have done a much larger volume of business this week than during the same week last year or year before. True, the soda fountains and ice cream parlors have not done so well as formerly, the weather having been too chilly for their line. The hotels and restaurants have had about all the business they could take care of.

The judges have been quite busy making the awards of premiums the past two days and will get through with their work today. These will be published in the REPUBLICAN from day to day until completed.

COMPARISON OF FIGURES.

Showing the Cost of Building Association Loans and Ordinary Loans.

A comparison of the cost of a loan of $1,000 on ordinary note and of the same amount borrowed through the Co-operative building and loan association is both interesting and instructive showing in each case the amount paid back by the borrower. The following are the figures:

ORDINARY NOTE LOAN.

Principal.....$1,000 00

Interest 6 per cent 5

years..... 360 00

Total.....$1,360 00

BUILDING ASSOCIATION LOAN.

Initiation fee, 10

shares..... .8 250

Premium 6 per cent

payable only once, 60 00

Interest 6 per cent 6

years..... 360 00

Dues $2.50 per week

6 years..... 780 00

Total..... $1,202 50

Balance in favor of association.....$ 157 50

In this comparison it is estimated that six years will be required for the building association stock to mature.

As a matter of fact all the stock thus far has matured in five years and eleven months. This gives the association still further advantage as one month's dues less would be paid. Besides the payments in the building association are made in small amounts every week and are much easier to meet than the large amount in one lump sum. Series R in the Co-operative building and loan association opens Monday October 2, when stock may be taken either for investment or loan. For full particulars see

This is to certify that I have had chronic diarrhoea ever since the war I got so weak I could hardly walk or do anything. One bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me sound and well.

J. R. GIBBS, Fincastle, Va. I had chronic diarrhoea for twelve years. Three bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured me.

S. L. SHAVER, Fincastle, Va. Both Mr. Gibbs and Mr. Shaver are prominent farmers and reside near Fincastle, Va. They procured the remedy from W. E. Casper, a druggist of that place, who is well acquainted with them and will vouch for the truth of their statements. For sale by C. W. Milhous.
